From the Pastor's Pen...

Very truly, I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains just a single grain, but if it dies it bears much fruit. John 12:24 – NRSV

I am always a bit sad each year as autumn dawns and the light of summer fades away slowly. I love the long days of summer that give us light that helps my garden grow and my flowers to thrive. This year my flowers and plants seem to be still giving me their vibrant flowers and fruit but as the days of light shorten I am reminded that soon the colors of summer in my garden will be gone, retreating for another season of rest, lying dormant waiting for the warmth of spring.

In the book, The Circle of Life, author Joyce Rupp writes about the season of autumn as a time to remind us of transformation.

Autumn is a wondrous metaphor for the transformation that takes place in the human heart each season. When we notice a subtle change of light outside our windows, we know the dark season is near. Everything is being prepared for winter. Autumn calls us in from summer's playground and asks significant questions about our own harvest: What do we need to gather into our spiritual barns? What in our lives needs to fall away like autumn leaves so another life waiting in the wings can have its turn to live?.....We are invited to let go, to yield.....We are encouraged to let things move in our lives. Let them flow on into some new life form just as the earth is modeling these changes for us. (pgs. 168-169)

As we gather for worship in October, we will continue to celebrate our liturgical season of Pentecost and hear words from the gospel of

LUTHERAN WORLD RELIEF

After a 2+ years hiatus due to COVID, I hope to return the Choir to lead worship! And I hope to try some different things such as switching to a Sunday morning rehearsal before the service rather than a Wednesday night. So, if Wednesday night was your excuse, perhaps you will consider coming out a little early on Sunday morning at 9AM. We'll rehearse music for the day, but also take a look at upcoming weeks as well.

You might see a more informal choir, as in no robes some of the time. We will still vest for Festival Sundays! So, if wearing a robe wasn't your thing, consider joining the choir now!

Perhaps you don't like sitting up front and would rather sit in the congregation with friends or family. Simply join us at the appropriate time in the service!

If every Sunday commitment was not in the cards for you previously, come when you can! I have a calendar available to sign when you can't be with us. If it's last minute, text me at 717-497-3219. So, if the commitment seemed too much for you, consider joining the choir now!

I am accepting ALL voice parts and I'm happy to talk to anyone who is interested in this music ministry! I hope to see you on Sunday mornings at 9AM!

Alan Hair
Director of Music Ministries

Holy Communion "at home"

Communion elements are available for those of you who are not able to attend in-person worship. By having these elements at home, you can share communion with us as we celebrate in the church. You can pick them up or we will bring them to your home. If you would like to receive communion elements, please contact Pastor Cindy at 717-512-4645 or the church office at htluth@comcast.net or 717- 533-2467.

Bulletin Sponsorships

We are putting bulletin sponsorships in the bulletin. The cost is $12.50 for ½ of the bulletin and $25.00 for the whole bulletin. If you would like to sponsor the bulletin, please call the office at 717-533-2467 and leave a message or email the office at htluth@comcast.net.

October 9th! SPECIAL GUEST! Emma Wagner Lutheran World Relief

On Sunday, October 9, we will welcome Emma Wagner from Lutheran World Relief. Emma's title is Manager of Congregational Engagement. She will share information about the ministry of Lutheran World Relief during Sunday School at 9:00 a.m. Emma will also share the message during worship at 10:00 a.m.

Please consider joining us for this time of learning how the kits we assemble, the quilts that are made, and the offerings we donate impact the lives of people in need around the world.

Worship Schedule Update

We will continue our worship schedule with worship services every Sunday morning at 10:00 AM. Services will be in-person and livestreamed.

ADULT DISCUSSION GROUP

Luke, chapters 17 and 18. On October 2, Jesus offers the story of a mustard seed.

Even the smallest of seeds like the mustard seed can produce a large plant, and with good soil, the plant can grow even stronger.

As you and your family experience the transitions of fall this year, I pray you are able to notice the wonders of nature as a metaphor for life and faith. Just as the seasons teach us that change is necessary to allow for new growth in our gardens, may we be able to open our hearts and minds to learn where God is leading us to change and transformation in our lives of faith individually and as a congregation to bear the best fruit possible.

Yours in Christ,
Pastor Cindy Brommer

The Adult Discussion group will continue to meet Sunday mornings at 9:00-9:45am in room #16. Back by popular demand, the group will be viewing The Ten Commandments: Laws of the Heart by Sister Joan Chittister, OSB.

In this series, Joan Chittister, OSB, invites us to think deeply about the moral fibers of our society. She presents the idea that the Ten Commandments are an adventure in human growth and that we are not so much convicted by them as we are transformed by them. "What does it mean to us, to the world, to preserve the Ten Commandments as the bedrock of our civilization?"

Sr. Joan offers an honest and refreshing approach to the Ten Commandments unlike anything else today. This amazing series will be presented for 12 weeks. All are welcome to attend in person and all sessions will be available via Zoom. To access the class by Zoom:

New Bible Study & Lunch Wednesday, October 26 at 11:00 a.m.

All are invited to join Pastor Cindy for a time of Bible Study, lunch, and fellowship.

We will discuss the gospel texts for upcoming Sundays. To keep it simple, please bring a bag lunch as we share a meal and fellowship. We will provide coffee and cold drinks.

It would be helpful to have an idea of the number who plan to attend, so please call the church office and let us know. But if you decide to come and have not let us know, that is ok too, please come and bring your lunch.

Volunteer Social Time

On Sunday, September 11th, Holy Trinity was buzzing with excitement as the Church continued the tradition of assembling school kits.

At last count at the end of the day on Sept. 11th, 148 School Kits were assembled as the Church gathered in service to celebrate who we are as a church...one church, freed in Christ to love and serve our neighbor.

Assembled and made prior to this week were 63 Personal Care kits and Quilts too! Both the School Kits and Personal Care Kits were made possible from donations made by the members.

Our quilters were busy and productive this year as well making a total of 88 quilts!

A huge thank you to everyone who donated both time, money & resources to make the assembly of the backpacks & other kits possible.

The opportunity served as a wonderful way of living out a life filled of service while fellowshiping with one another to serve others in need.

CAPITAL REPAIR FUND

The Capital Repair Fund is used when we have major repairs to the church building. As you tithe, we encourage you to designate funding toward the Fund so that we don't need to make urgent appeals for things such as roofs or heating systems.

HELP SUPPORT OUR YOUTH

A quick & easy way to help support our Youth is to purchase Giant Gift Cards! You get to match dollar for dollar of your gift card purchase toward the cost of your already expended expenses for groceries & gas too! All proceeds go to support the Youth programs.

How it works:

You buy a card at face value ($25, $50, or $100). The Youth then will make 5% on that sale from Giant. You can then use that gift card anytime you shop at Giant stores (including gas purchases).

If interested, see Nathan in the Narthex after service on Sunday.

LESSONS FROM GEESE

With the arrival of Fall, it's common to hear geese or see those V-formations in the sky as the geese migrate to their winter or next destination. Perhaps the next time you hear/see them, you too will look at them in a different way as they fly to keep the perfect "V". It's a lovely reminder for us to stop in our hurried lives is for a quick moment to reflect on a few lessons we can learn from one of God's beautiful creatures:

Fact One: As each bird flaps its wings, it creates an uplift for the bird following it. By flying in a V-formation, the whole flock adds 71% greater flying range than if it flew alone. That's a fact. Seventy-one percent greater flying range than if each bird flew alone,

Lesson: People who share a common direction and sense of community can get where they're going quicker & easier because they are traveling on the trust of one another. Strength is found in numbers.

Fact Two: Whenever a goose falls out of formation, it suddenly feels the drag and resistance of trying to fly alone and quickly gets back into formation to take advantage of the lifting power of the bird immediately in front.

Lesson: If we have as much sense as geese, we will stay in formation with those who are headed where we want to go and be willing to accept their help, as well as give our help to others.

Fact Three: When the lead goose gets tired, it rotates back into formation and another goose flies at the point position.

Lesson: it pays to take turns doing hard tasks and sharing leadership. With people as with geese, we are interdependent on each other's skills and capabilities and unique alignment of gifts, talents, and resources.

Fact Four: the geese in a formation honk from behind is encouraging those in front to keep up their speed.

Lesson: We need to make sure our honking from behind is encouraging and not something else. In groups where there is great encouragement against great odds, the production is much greater—the power of encouragement. At the center of encouragement is "courage" and the root of courage is a Latin word that means "heart" Maybe honking strengthens the heart.

Fact Five: When a goose gets sick, two geese drop down or stay beside the weak to help and protect it. They stay with it until it is either able to fly again or passes. Then they launch out on their own with another formation or catch up with the flock.

Lesson: Like geese, how wonderful it is when we intentionally stand side by side with one another with compassion to provide encouragement and/or support in difficult times as well as when we are "Lessons from Geese" was transcribed from a speech by Angeles Arrien at the 1991 Organizational Development Network and was based on the work of Milton Olsen.

OCTOBER IS PASTOR APPRECIATION MONTH!

St. Paul never asked for anything for himself except that others pray for him. To the church at Rome, he wrote: "I appeal to you, brothers and sisters, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by the love of the Spirit, to join me in earnest prayer to God on my behalf, that I may be rescued from the unbelievers to Judea, and that my ministry to Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints, so that by God's will I may come to you with joy and be refreshed in your company." Romans 15:30-32, NRSV

We give thanks to God for Pastor Brommer & her ministry as she serves God through the work of her hands and mind. We pray that God will continue to watch over and bless you each and every day and hope that you know how much you are appreciated!
